IMPORTANT NOTICE: This is meant to be a good-value travel experience trip, planned to find a right balance between adventure, nature, culture, shopping and even chill-out time. Having said that, travelers should still be relatively fit, with a good sense of humor, and above all, have the right attitude for close travel with others through possibly some trying times. Most definitely, this is not a trip for prudes, whiners, fuss-pots, and other similarly assorted types! We had a couple of those before and it wasn't pleasant for us or them.

Although every effort will be made to stick to the given itinerary, ground conditions may change and cause some disruption and/or deviation from the norm. Otherwise, have fun!

ALBANIA is slowly becoming the jewel of the Balkans due to its sparkling crystal waters, impressive mountains, and affordability for all types of travelers. Part Balkan, part Mediterranean and rich in Greek, Roman and Otoman heritage, be prepared to be submerged in a rich culture like no other in Europe. NORTH MACEDONIA is Europe's newest country, with a fascinating and a complex national identity. With vast lakes ringed by old Byzantine churches, thickly forested mountains, archaeological remains from as far back as the era of Alexander the Great, this is truly a little land of plenty. KOSOVO is not exactly on the main tourist trail, but for those who make the effort, this fascinating land at the heart of Balkans rewards visitors with welcoming smiles, charming mountain towns, incredible hiking opportunities and 13th century monasteries brushed in medieval art. Join us on a minimum 1500-2000 km journey through these less-visited parts of the Balkans, before the masses realize what they are missing!!! :D
